

CENTRAL JERSEY
HOUSING RESOURCE CENTER (CJHRC)

CJHRC is open during the COVID19 pandemic and ready to assist clients with their housing needs

Central Jersey Housing Resource Center (CJHRC) is a housing non-profit that has been serving the residents and employees of Somerset and Hunterdon County for over 30 years. Due to COVID-19, we cannot meet clients face-to-face and our office is closed to the public. All group presentations have been cancelled.

Please know, our Board of Trustees and staff care deeply about our clients and our community. We are here working behind closed doors in order to assist our existing clients and to help other individuals/families who have never contacted us before. We are still processing applications, responding by email and taking phone calls.

We offer the following FREE counseling services:

FORECLOSURE PREVENTION & DEFAULT COUNSELING

PRE - PURCHASE COUNSELING

RENTAL
COUNSELING

FINANCIAL LITERACY
COUNSELING

Counselors provide information about the State of NJ Low and Moderate Income Program and CJHRC is an approved Administrative Agent (AA) handling rental, new sale and resale units. Our staff continues to send/process applications and provide services to the following Somerset County Townships or Towns: Bernards, Franklin, Green Brook, Warren (1 rental complex), as well as for Raritan Township in Hunterdon County.

If dropping off documents for counseling or application processing, there is a drop box outside the CJHRC office door that is checked regularly when staff is present. We suggest you email or call our office before dropping off documents.

Contact CJHRC if you need assistance addressing these or other housing issues
